

Name _____

Green Heroes: How NGOs Save Our Planet

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is afforestation?
 - a) Cutting down trees in forests
 - b) Planting trees in areas with existing forests
 - c) Planting trees in areas that were not previously forested
 - d) Protecting endangered species

2. How do NGOs contribute to clean energy initiatives?
 - a) By advocating for more fossil fuel use
 - b) By supporting the use of solar and wind energy
 - c) By increasing greenhouse gas emissions
 - d) By promoting wasteful energy consumption

3. What is one way NGOs promote sustainable agriculture?
 - a) Encouraging the use of chemical pesticides
 - b) Promoting organic farming practices
 - c) Advocating for deforestation
 - d) Discouraging crop rotation

4. What is the main focus of NGOs in climate change advocacy?
 - a) Promoting policies to limit global warming
 - b) Encouraging the use of fossil fuels
 - c) Ignoring climate-related challenges
 - d) Decreasing awareness about climate change

5. Why is data collection and research important for NGOs in their environmental work?
 - a) To make decisions without understanding the issues
 - b) To waste resources on unnecessary projects
 - c) To understand the state of the environment and develop effective strategies
 - d) To ignore the impact of their actions on the environment

