

Name _____

The Enchanted Amulet of Greenwood Grove

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The friends decided to venture into the forest to find the Enchanted Amulet out of a spirit of adventure and the desire to test the legend surrounding the amulet's magical powers.
2. As the friends delved deeper into the forest, it became increasingly enchanting, with a thick atmosphere of magic. The ancient trees filtered the sunlight in a magical way, creating a sense of wonder and mystique.
3. The Enchanted Amulet not only granted their wishes but also brought them closer as friends and helped them discover unexpected personal growth and fulfillment.
4. The story teaches us that selflessness and making wishes that benefit others can lead to not only personal fulfillment but also a stronger sense of community and friendship. It emphasizes the idea that true happiness often comes from sharing our good fortune with others.

