

Name _____

Growing Pains

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker has mixed feelings about the passage into adulthood, recognizing the value of growth but also missing their childhood innocence.
2. The phrase "each day a thrilling flight" suggests that the speaker's childhood was filled with excitement and adventure.
3. The speaker mentions that they learned courage and strength as they grew up.
4. In hindsight, the speaker views the loss of innocence as bittersweet, recognizing its value in shaping them.
5. The poem conveys the message that growing up involves both loss and gain, but the lessons of childhood remain valuable.

