

Name _____

Growing Up: A Sonnet of Discovery

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the Sonnet poem "Growing Up: A Sonnet of Discovery"?
 - a) The joys of childhood
 - b) The challenges of teenage years
 - c) The experiences and revelations of growing up
 - d) The mysteries of the past

2. What does the poem suggest happens as we grow up?
 - a) We become more childlike
 - b) We stop exploring the world
 - c) We learn from our past experiences
 - d) We forget our true selves

3. According to the poem, what do friendships during growing up reveal?
 - a) Secrets about the world
 - b) True aspects of our personality
 - c) The importance of staying alone
 - d) The value of material possessions

4. What does the poem say about dreams?
 - a) Dreams are unimportant
 - b) Dreams can take us to the skies
 - c) Dreams are only for children
 - d) Dreams should be forgotten as we grow up

5. What is the overall message of the poem regarding the process of growing up?
 - a) Growing up is easy and carefree
 - b) Growing up is full of mysteries
 - c) Growing up is a journey of self-discovery and adventure
 - d) Growing up means forgetting our past

