

Name _____

Guardians of Our Rights: How International Treaties Protect Individuals

Short Answer

1. How does the Universal Declaration of Human Rights raise awareness about human rights?
2. Give an example of a specific human right protected by international treaties.
3. Why is it important for countries to be held accountable for following human rights treaties?
4. How can individuals seek help if their own government is not protecting their rights under international treaties?
5. What role do education and understanding play in the protection of human rights under international treaties?

