

Name _____

Guppies: Small Fish with a Big Role in the Ecosystem

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one way guppies help control pests?
 - A. They eat algae
 - B. They spread diseases
 - C. They scare away mosquitoes
 - D. They eat mosquito larvae

2. What role do guppies play in the food chain?
 - A. They are predators that eat birds
 - B. They live alone and avoid predators
 - C. They are prey for larger animals
 - D. They are at the top of the food chain

3. What happens if algae grow too much in a guppy's habitat?
 - A. The water becomes healthier
 - B. The water loses oxygen, which can harm other animals
 - C. It creates more space for guppies
 - D. It attracts more predators

4. Which of these animals might eat a guppy?
 - A. A lion
 - B. A frog
 - C. A rabbit
 - D. A turtle

5. Why do scientists study guppies?
 - A. To learn how they help ecosystems and adapt to environments
 - B. To use them as pets
 - C. To teach them tricks
 - D. To stop them from reproducing

