

Name _____

The Way Guppies Move: Swimming with Style

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What part of a guppy's body helps it push forward when swimming?
 - A. Its head
 - B. Its caudal (tail) fin
 - C. Its dorsal (top) fin
 - D. Its pectoral (side) fins

2. How do guppies use their pectoral fins?
 - A. To push themselves forward
 - B. To hide from predators
 - C. To steer and balance
 - D. To catch food

3. Why are guppies good at avoiding predators?
 - A. They can freeze and dart away quickly
 - B. They can hide in sand
 - C. They can fly above the water
 - D. They are too big to catch

4. What is one reason male guppies swim in flashy ways?
 - A. To scare predators
 - B. To catch food faster
 - C. To attract female guppies
 - D. To steer through tight spaces

5. What does swimming in schools help guppies do?
 - A. Swim faster
 - B. Catch bigger prey
 - C. Jump out of the water
 - D. Avoid being targeted by predators