

Name _____

Guppies and Their Relationships with Other Species

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of symbiotic relationship benefits both guppies and humans?
 - A. Mutualism
 - B. Commensalism
 - C. Parasitism
 - D. Competition

2. How does eating mosquito larvae help guppies?
 - A. It gives them protection
 - B. It keeps them from getting sick
 - C. It makes them harder to catch
 - D. It provides them with food

3. What is parasitism?
 - A. When one species helps another without being affected
 - B. When one species benefits and the other is harmed
 - C. When two species benefit from each other
 - D. When both species are harmed

4. How might swimming near larger fish help guppies?
 - A. It makes them look bigger to predators
 - B. It keeps predators away
 - C. It helps them find more food
 - D. It attracts more guppies

5. What is a group of guppies called?
 - A. A pack
 - B. A flock
 - C. A school
 - D. A swarm

