

Name _____

Exploring the Habitats of Herbaceous Plants

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where can herbaceous plants be found in urban environments?
 - A) Underneath rocks
 - B) On rooftops
 - C) Only in designated gardens
 - D) Along roadsides

2. Which habitat is characterized by waterlogged conditions and fluctuating water levels?
 - A) Grasslands
 - B) Forest understory
 - C) Wetlands
 - D) Desert

3. What type of environment is dominated by grasses and herbaceous vegetation?
 - A) Grasslands
 - B) Wetlands
 - C) Tundra
 - D) Deserts

4. Where do herbaceous plants typically grow in forests?
 - A) Near the canopy
 - B) In the soil
 - C) On tree branches
 - D) Along rivers

5. In which environment do herbaceous plants compete for nutrients in fertile soil?
 - A) Wetlands
 - B) Tundra
 - C) Grasslands
 - D) Deserts

