

Name _____

Hard Work Pays

Short Answer Key

1. The Little Red Hen does all the work by herself because her friends refuse to help.
2. The other animals are excited and eager to eat the bread, but they are disappointed when she does not share.
3. If the animals had helped, they all could have shared the work and the reward.
4. The story teaches that teamwork and responsibility are important to achieving success.
5. If she had shared, the animals might not have learned the importance of hard work.

