

Name _____

Hard Work Wins

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does the Little Red Hen decide to do the work herself?
 - a) She enjoys working alone.
 - b) She wants all the bread for herself.
 - c) She does not trust her friends.
 - d) The other animals refuse to help her.

2. What lesson does the story teach?
 - a) It is better to wait for help before starting a task.
 - b) Hard work and initiative lead to success.
 - c) The best way to make friends is by sharing.
 - d) It is okay to be lazy if others will do the work.

3. Why do the animals want to eat the bread at the end of the story?
 - a) They suddenly feel sorry for the Hen.
 - b) They are hungry and smell the delicious bread.
 - c) They decide to help at the last minute.
 - d) They want to apologize to the Hen.

4. How does the Little Red Hen show initiative?
 - a) She asks for help from her friends.
 - b) She waits for the other animals to start working.
 - c) She does the work herself when no one helps her.
 - d) She decides to bake a cake instead.

5. What might the other animals learn from this experience?
 - a) Next time, they should help if they want to share the reward.
 - b) It is okay to let others do all the work.
 - c) The Hen will always share no matter what.
 - d) Bread is easy to make without effort.

