The Ghost Ship's Haunting Voyage

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The ship in the poem is called "The Ghost Ship" because it sails without a living crew and is associated with eerie, haunting tales.
2. If I encountered the ghostly ship on a moonlit night, I would feel a mixture of curiosity, fascination, and a bit of fear because it would be an otherworldly and mysterious sight.
3. The ship's crew might have vanished at sea due to a curse, a storm, or perhaps they encountered supernatural forces during their voyage.
4. The ship's crew's "tormented pleas" could convey their longing for rest or redemption, as they are trapped in a never-ending journey as ghosts.
