

Name _____

Helping Hands

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the gas station owner do to help the Joad family?
  - A) He hires Tom Joad for a job at the station.
  - B) He refuses to sell them anything.
  - C) He gives them extra food even though they have little money.
  - D) He gives them free gas for their journey.

2. Why does Ma Joad share food with another family?
  - A) She does not actually share food with anyone.
  - B) She has too much food and doesn't want it to go to waste.
  - C) She is hoping the family will give her money in return.
  - D) She believes that helping others makes everyone stronger.

3. What happens at the end of the novel that shows a great act of kindness?
  - A) Tom Joad gives his mother money before leaving.
  - B) Rose of Sharon shares her milk to save a starving man.
  - C) The Joad family finds a farm and starts a new life.
  - D) The farm owners give the workers fair wages.

4. What does Steinbeck suggest about kindness in the novel?
  - A) Kindness is not as important as making money.
  - B) Helping others can give people hope and strength.
  - C) Only wealthy people can afford to be kind.
  - D) The Joads never receive kindness from anyone.

5. How do acts of kindness impact the Joad family's journey?
  - A) They help the family survive and stay hopeful.
  - B) They make the family give up and return home.
  - C) They cause the family to stop trusting others.
  - D) They do not affect the family's journey at all.

