

Name _____

Henry Ford: Revolutionizing Transportation and Manufacturing

Multiple Choice Questions

1. In which year did Henry Ford complete the construction of his first gasoline-powered vehicle, the Quadricycle?
 - a. 1876
 - b. 1896
 - c. 1908
 - d. 1913

2. What is Henry Ford most famous for inventing?
 - a. The first airplane
 - b. The light bulb
 - c. The Model T
 - d. The telephone

3. What major innovation in manufacturing did Henry Ford introduce in 1913?
 - a. The steam engine
 - b. The cotton gin
 - c. The assembly line
 - d. The printing press

4. How did the introduction of the assembly line affect the manufacturing process?
 - a. It slowed down production.
 - b. It increased production time.
 - c. It reduced efficiency.
 - d. It sped up production and lowered manufacturing costs.

5. What role did the Model T play in the history of automobiles?
 - a. It was the first luxury automobile.
 - b. It was the first electric car.
 - c. It was the first affordable automobile designed for the average American.
 - d. It was primarily used by the wealthy.

