

Name _____

Hidden Exploitation

Short Answer Key

1. The animals trusted the pigs because they seemed smart and told convincing lies about protecting the farm from Mr. Jones.
2. Squealer used lies and fear, telling the animals their sacrifices were needed to prevent Mr. Jones from returning.
3. Boxer worked the hardest and never questioned the pigs, but when he was injured, they sold him instead of helping him.
4. The pigs used fear, such as the idea of Mr. Jones returning, to stop the animals from challenging their authority.
5. The pigs created inequality by taking extra resources for themselves while making the other animals work harder.

