

Name _____

Cracking the Code: The Mystery of Hieroglyphics

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What were hieroglyphics used for in ancient Egypt?
  - a) Playing games
  - b) Recording history and information
  - c) Making jewelry
  - d) Decorating houses

2. How did the Rosetta Stone contribute to the decipherment of hieroglyphics?
  - a) It was made of gold and jewels.
  - b) It contained hieroglyphic drawings.
  - c) It had the same text in three different scripts.
  - d) It was discovered in 1999.

3. Who was the French scholar known for his work in deciphering hieroglyphics?
  - a) Leonardo da Vinci
  - b) Jean-François Champollion
  - c) Cleopatra
  - d) Julius Caesar

4. What significant discovery did Champollion make about hieroglyphics?
  - a) They were entirely made up of logograms.
  - b) They were not found on the Rosetta Stone.
  - c) They combined both logograms and phonetic signs.
  - d) They were used only for religious texts.

5. Why were hieroglyphics considered a mystery for many years?
  - a) They were easy to understand.
  - b) Scholars were not interested in deciphering them.
  - c) They were written in Greek.
  - d) Their meaning and pronunciation were unknown.

