

Name _____

The Road to the Boston Tea Party: Events Leading to a Historic Protest

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you were a colonist living in Boston during the events leading up to the Boston Tea Party. Describe the emotions and experiences you might have had, and why you would have supported or opposed the protests against British policies.
2. Reflect on the role of boycotts and protests in the events leading to the Boston Tea Party. How did these actions shape the colonists' response to British taxation and control?
3. Discuss the impact of the Boston Tea Party as the culmination of colonial resistance. How did this event influence the colonists' determination to assert their rights and seek independence from British rule?
4. Analyze the role of taxation as a key factor in the events leading up to the Boston Tea Party. How did British attempts to generate revenue from the colonies lead to growing unrest and resistance?

