

Name _____

When History Disappoints

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Dr. Emily Collins discover about General William Anderson?
  - A) He was a war hero with an unblemished record.
  - B) He was involved in a dark conspiracy during the war.
  - C) He was a politician after the war.
  - D) He was a renowned scientist.

2. Why did Emily face a moral dilemma?
  - A) She was unsure about her career path.
  - B) She discovered evidence that could tarnish a revered historical figure's legacy.
  - C) She had to choose between two job offers.
  - D) She was unable to find any historical evidence.

3. How did Emily's colleagues and mentors react to her discovery?
  - A) They urged her to keep the information to herself.
  - B) They encouraged her to publish her findings.
  - C) They ignored her research.
  - D) They suggested she change her career.

4. Why did Emily decide to publish her research?
  - A) She wanted to damage her own career.
  - B) She believed in the pursuit of historical accuracy and truth.
  - C) She wanted to protect General Anderson's legacy.
  - D) She was pressured by the public.

5. What impact did Emily's decision have on the historical community and the public?
  - A) It led to the suppression of her research.
  - B) It sparked a debate and a reevaluation of General Anderson's role in history.
  - C) It had no impact on anyone.
  - D) It made Emily a famous historian.

