

Name _____

The Case of the Vanishing Homework

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the character traits that make Lily Rodriguez a skilled detective. How did her determination and keen observation skills help her crack the case of the disappearing homework?
2. Reflect on the importance of empathy and understanding as demonstrated in the school's response to Emily's confession. How did the school's decision to provide Emily with extra help and support align with these values?
3. If you were one of the students in Crestwood Middle School, how would you have reacted when Lily revealed Emily as the culprit? What actions or words of kindness would you have offered to Emily in this situation?
4. Imagine you are writing a letter to Lily, expressing your admiration for her detective skills and her ability to bring kindness to the school. What would you say in your letter, and how would you describe the impact of her actions on the school community?

