

Name _____

Homework's Burden

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In your own words, discuss the challenges students face when dealing with a never-ending load of homework, as portrayed in the Haiku.
2. How do you think finding "freedom's light" relates to the idea of finding balance and relaxation in a busy student's life?
3. Share some strategies or tips that you believe can help students manage their homework and reduce stress.
4. Reflect on the importance of maintaining a healthy balance between schoolwork and free time for a student's overall well-being.

