

Name _____

How Horses Reproduce

Short Answer Key

1. The mare's main job is to nurse and protect her foal.
2. Horses mate in spring or summer when food is plentiful and weather is mild.
3. A foal can stand and walk within a few hours after birth.
4. Herds protect young horses by watching for danger and guiding them.
5. A stallion attracts a mare by showing strength and calling out loudly.

