

Name _____

A World of School Days: Exploring Differences in Learning Hours

Short Answer

1. Describe the school hours in Japan and one factor that contributes to their longer school days.
2. How does Finland's approach to education differ from that of Japan in terms of school hours and homework?
3. What is one reason why students in China often have longer school days and continue studying in the evening?
4. Explain the flexibility in school scheduling for Brazilian students and how it benefits them.
5. Provide an overview of a typical school day's structure, including key components, such as subject classes and breaks.

