Paws and Pee: A Guide to House Training Your Pup

Short Answer Key

1. Establishing a routine helps your dog learn when and where to go to the bathroom.
2. Accidents indoors should be cleaned up thoroughly to prevent future accidents in the same spot.
3. You should avoid punishing your dog for accidents and giving them too much freedom indoors.
4. Patience is important because house training takes time and consistency.
5. Treats or praise can be used to reinforce good behavior during house training.
