

Name _____

Unraveling the World of NGOs: How They Differ from Government Agencies

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does NGO stand for?
 - a) National Government Organization
 - b) Non-Governmental Organization
 - c) New Global Order
 - d) Necessary Growth Opportunity

2. How do NGOs primarily fund their activities?
 - a) Through government funding
 - b) Through donations and grants
 - c) Through corporate taxes
 - d) Through public auctions

3. What is one key advantage of NGOs compared to government agencies?
 - a) Government agencies are more flexible.
 - b) NGOs have more funding.
 - c) NGOs can focus on specific issues.
 - d) Government agencies can raise awareness more effectively.

4. What is one way NGOs raise awareness about important issues?
 - a) By passing laws and regulations
 - b) By engaging in political campaigns
 - c) By using communication tools and campaigns
 - d) By relying on government funding

5. What is a significant strength of NGOs?
 - a) They are experts in a wide range of fields.
 - b) They have the power to enforce laws.
 - c) They can quickly adapt to changing circumstances.
 - d) They receive funding from taxpayers.

