

Name _____

The Road to the NFL: How to Become a National Football League Player

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the first step to becoming an NFL player?
 - a) Join a college football team
 - b) Start playing in the NFL
 - c) Participate in youth football or flag football
 - d) Attend an NFL training camp

2. Why is playing high school football important for aspiring NFL players?
 - a) It guarantees a scholarship to a Division I college.
 - b) It allows them to skip college and go directly to the NFL.
 - c) It helps them develop essential skills and catch the attention of college scouts.
 - d) It provides an opportunity to sign an NFL contract.

3. When do NFL teams select players to join their rosters?
 - a) During college football games
 - b) After participating in youth football leagues
 - c) During the NFL Draft
 - d) During the Super Bowl

4. What is a crucial aspect of an NFL player's off-field responsibilities?
 - a) Memorizing complex playbooks
 - b) Engaging in community outreach and charity work
 - c) Winning the Super Bowl MVP award
 - d) Participating in weekly press conferences

5. Why is continual improvement important for NFL players?
 - a) It helps them secure lucrative endorsement deals.
 - b) It allows them to take breaks during the offseason.
 - c) It is necessary to adapt to changes in the game and stay competitive.
 - d) It ensures they never face any setbacks in their careers.

