

Name _____

The Fury of Nature and Human Resilience

Short Answer Key

1. Destructive forces of nature mentioned in the poem include earthquakes, hurricanes, volcanoes, floods, and tornadoes.
2. People respond to the destructive forces of nature by uniting, showing courage, and rebuilding their communities.
3. The significance of communities rebuilding after natural disasters is that it demonstrates the power of human resilience and the determination to recover from adversity.
4. The poem conveys that the strength of human spirit shines through in the face of natural disasters, showing courage, unity, and the ability to rebuild.
5. The theme of resilience applies to the poem's message by highlighting the human capacity to bounce back and thrive in the aftermath of natural disasters.

