

Name _____

The Art of Garden Hydration: Watering Your Plants with Precision

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the first step in effective watering for your garden?

- a) Measuring rainfall
- b) Understanding plant diversity
- c) Daily watering
- d) Using shallow containers

2. How often should established plants typically be watered?

- a) Every day
- b) Every 2-3 days
- c) Every 7-10 days
- d) Once a month

3. What is the recommended depth for checking soil moisture with your finger?

- a) 1 inch
- b) 6 inches
- c) 2 inches
- d) 12 inches

4. What is the purpose of applying mulch around garden plants?

- a) To increase soil temperature
- b) To prevent soil erosion
- c) To reduce the need for frequent watering
- d) To add nutrients to the soil

5. When should you water newly planted seeds and seedlings?

- a) Once a month
- b) Every 7-10 days
- c) Every 2-3 days
- d) Never

