

Name _____

Surfing the Web: Unveiling the World of Internet Service Providers (ISPs)

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of Internet Service Providers (ISPs)?
  - a) Designing websites
  - b) Providing internet access
  - c) Selling computers
  - d) Hosting online games

2. Which type of ISP uses wireless technologies like Wi-Fi and cellular networks to offer internet access?
  - a) Broadband ISPs
  - b) Dial-Up ISPs
  - c) Wireless ISPs (WISPs)
  - d) Satellite ISPs

3. How do ISPs connect your devices to the internet?
  - a) Through a digital bridge
  - b) By installing internet cables in your home
  - c) By providing a modem or router
  - d) By sending signals via satellite

4. What does bandwidth determine in an internet plan?
  - a) The number of devices you can connect
  - b) The maximum speed of your internet connection
  - c) The cost of the plan
  - d) The distance between your device and the router

5. What is the role of net neutrality in the context of ISPs?
  - a) It determines the speed of your internet connection.
  - b) It regulates how ISPs provide customer support.
  - c) It ensures that ISPs treat all internet traffic equally, without favoring specific websites or services.
  - d) It restricts the use of wireless technologies by ISPs.

