

Name _____

What Does an Iguana Eat?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Plants provide iguanas with food and nutrients to stay healthy and strong.
2. Iguanas use their eyesight to spot plants and use their teeth to tear them apart.
3. They eat only plants, making them herbivores.
4. If plants were hard to find, iguanas would struggle to get enough food and might not survive.

