

Name _____

Immune Memory: The Superheroes of Immunity

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is immune memory?

- a) A library of past battles stored in your body.
- b) A type of food.
- c) A video game.
- d) A planet in outer space.

2. How does immune memory help protect the body from getting sick again?

- a) Memory cells recognize and attack invaders they've encountered before.
- b) By making the body glow in the dark.
- c) By sending messages to aliens.
- d) By hiding under the bed.

3. What are memory cells?

- a) Cells in the immune system that remember past encounters with invaders.
- b) Cells that make you forget things.
- c) Cells that play music.
- d) Cells that dance.

4. How do vaccines work?

- a) By triggering the immune system to produce memory cells.
- b) By causing illness.
- c) By turning people into superheroes.
- d) By making people sleepy.

5. What is immune memory compared to in the passage?

- a) Having a library of past battles stored in your body.
- b) A spaceship.
- c) A monster.
- d) A rainbow.

