

Name _____

Capturing Moments: Impressionism Art

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a defining characteristic of Impressionism art?
 - a) Precise and detailed brushwork
 - b) Focus on capturing fleeting moments
 - c) Use of dark and muted colors
 - d) Depiction of historical events

2. How did Impressionist artists capture the effects of light and color in their paintings?
 - a) By avoiding the use of color altogether
 - b) By employing loose brushwork and vibrant colors
 - c) By using a strict and formal composition
 - d) By excluding outdoor scenes from their work

3. What does "en plein air" mean in the context of Impressionism art?
 - a) Artists painted only in art studios
 - b) Artists worked outdoors, directly observing their subjects
 - c) Artists focused exclusively on still life painting
 - d) Artists used sculpture as their primary medium

4. Which Impressionist artist is known for his series of water lily paintings?
 - a) Pierre-Auguste Renoir
 - b) Edgar Degas
 - c) Claude Monet
 - d) Mary Cassatt

5. How did Impressionism influence the development of modern art?
 - a) It had no impact on modern art movements
 - b) It paved the way for movements like Post-Impressionism and Fauvism
 - c) It led to the revival of Neoclassical art
 - d) It focused solely on historical subjects.

