

Name _____

: How to Be More Inclusive and Accepting

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does empathy mean?
 - a) Making fun of others
 - b) Putting yourself in someone else's shoes
 - c) Ignoring other people's feelings
 - d) Disagreeing with everyone

2. What is a stereotype?
 - a) An oversimplified and often inaccurate belief about a group of people
 - b) A type of festival
 - c) A popular book
 - d) A delicious dish

3. How can you celebrate diversity?
 - a) By excluding people from different backgrounds
 - b) By attending cultural festivals and trying different cuisines
 - c) By staying away from people who are different
 - d) By judging people based on appearances

4. What is inclusivity?
 - a) Excluding certain people
 - b) Making sure everyone feels welcome and a part of the community
 - c) Ignoring others
 - d) Discriminating against others

5. Why is self-reflection important?
 - a) To find more stereotypes
 - b) To acknowledge and work on our biases and prejudices
 - c) To make fun of ourselves
 - d) To criticize others

