

Name _____

The Internet's Inventors and Their Ingenious Motives

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who initiated the project ARPANET, laying the foundation for the Internet?
  - A) Apple Inc.
  - B) U.S. Department of Defense's ARPA
  - C) Microsoft Corporation
  - D) Google LLC

2. What is packet switching, and why is it important for data transmission?
  - A) A type of computer game
  - B) Breaking data into small packets for efficient transmission
  - C) A form of nuclear defense
  - D) A way to prevent data sharing

3. Who proposed a decentralized network design for the Internet?
  - A) Leonard Kleinrock
  - B) Paul Baran
  - C) Steve Jobs
  - D) Mark Zuckerberg

4. Why did the creators of the Internet prioritize resilience and flexibility in its design?
  - A) To make it entertaining
  - B) To withstand nuclear attacks
  - C) To increase profit
  - D) To limit access to information

5. What was one of the key motivations for inventing the Internet?
  - A) Selling products online
  - B) Enhancing communication and sharing knowledge
  - C) Monitoring people's activities
  - D) Playing online games

