

Name _____

The Internet's Inventors and Their Ingenious Motives

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If ARPANET was created to enhance national security during the Cold War, how did it eventually evolve into a global network for everyday communication and information sharing?
2. Imagine a world without the Internet. How do you think our lives, especially in terms of communication and access to information, would be different today?
3. Discuss the impact of email on communication and collaboration, citing examples of how it has changed the way people interact.
4. Do you think the motivations behind the creation of the Internet have been realized today? Explain your answer with examples.

