

Name _____

Inherited Debt

Multiple Choice Questions:

1. What unexpected burden does the Johnson family face after Uncle Frank's passing?
 - a) Emotional turmoil
 - b) An unexpected inheritance
 - c) Significant debt left by Uncle Frank
 - d) A new family member

2. Why do the Johnsons gather to discuss their situation?
 - a) To celebrate Uncle Frank's life
 - b) To plan a family vacation
 - c) To decide how to handle Uncle Frank's debt
 - d) To share their favorite memories of Uncle Frank

3. What dilemma do the Johnsons face regarding Uncle Frank's estate?
 - a) Whether to sell his car
 - b) Whether to keep his beloved beach house or sell it to settle his debt
 - c) Whether to donate his clothes to charity
 - d) Whether to have a family reunion

4. How do family members react to the idea of selling the beach house?
 - a) They all agree to sell it immediately.
 - b) Some advocate for selling it, while others disagree.
 - c) They refuse to consider selling it.
 - d) They plan to turn it into a vacation rental.

5. What do the Johnsons ultimately learn from their experience in the story?
 - a) Family is less important than material possessions.
 - b) Compromise and communication are essential in facing challenges.
 - c) Debt should always be avoided.
 - d) They should never have accepted Uncle Frank's inheritance.

