

Name _____

Inviting Beneficial Insects and Pollinators to Your Garden

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why are ladybugs beneficial to your garden?
  - a) They make your garden look colorful.
  - b) They help with natural pest control.
  - c) They improve soil quality.
  - d) They scare away harmful insects.

2. What is the primary role of bees in the garden?
  - a) They provide shade to plants.
  - b) They aerate the soil.
  - c) They transfer pollen, aiding in plant reproduction.
  - d) They consume garden pests.

3. How can you create shelter for beneficial insects in your garden?
  - a) Use artificial lights to attract them.
  - b) Install a birdbath.
  - c) Incorporate native plants.
  - d) Include rocks, logs, or a small brush pile.

4. Why should you avoid using pesticides in your garden?
  - a) Pesticides make your garden smell bad.
  - b) Pesticides can harm beneficial insects.
  - c) Pesticides improve soil quality.
  - d) Pesticides attract pollinators.

5. What is the primary function of pollinators like bees and butterflies?
  - a) They eat leaves and stems of plants.
  - b) They control garden pests.
  - c) They transfer pollen between flowers.
  - d) They provide shade to plants.

