

Name _____

What Happens After a Bill is Introduced in Congress?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What happens to a bill after it is introduced in Congress?
 - a) It becomes a law immediately.
 - b) It goes through committee review.
 - c) It is sent to the President for signature.
 - d) It is assigned to a conference committee.

2. What is the purpose of committee review in the legislative process?
 - a) To draft the bill's language
 - b) To hold hearings for the public
 - c) To ensure the bill is well-crafted and addresses important issues
 - d) To vote on the bill's final version

3. What happens if the House and Senate disagree on the final details of a bill?
 - a) The bill is automatically vetoed.
 - b) A conference committee is formed to reconcile the differences.
 - c) The bill is sent to the Supreme Court for review.
 - d) The bill is declared unconstitutional.

4. What options does the President have when a bill reaches their desk for consideration?
 - a) Sign the bill into law, veto it, or take no action
 - b) Amend the bill and send it back to Congress
 - c) Approve the bill without a vote
 - d) Disapprove the bill without a veto

5. What does it mean when a bill becomes part of the United States Code?
 - a) It becomes a law in one state.
 - b) It is recorded for historical purposes.
 - c) It is assigned a public law number.
 - d) It becomes an official federal law.

