Name _____

The Inventor's Apprentice

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think Professor Invento invited Sam to work with him? What qualities or skills do you think Sam had that impressed the famous inventor?

2. How do you think making mistakes can lead to success in inventing or any other creative field? Can you share an example from your own experience where making a mistake helped you learn something valuable?

3. Imagine you had the chance to work with a famous inventor like Sam did. What invention or experiment would you want to work on, and why? What do you think you would learn from the experience?

4. In what ways do you think Sam's week with Professor Invento changed their perspective on inventing and creativity? How might Sam apply these lessons to their future inventions?

© ReadingDuck.com