Name _____

The Exciting World of Real Estate Investment

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why might real estate investors choose to diversify their investments by owning a mix of residential and commercial properties?

2. Can you think of any potential risks or challenges that real estate investors might face in their pursuit of making money in this field?

3. Imagine you are a real estate investor. What factors would you consider when deciding whether to buy a property for rental income or for flipping?

4. How might changes in the economy, such as a recession, impact the profitability of real estate investments?

© ReadingDuck.com