

Name _____

The Exciting World of Real Estate Investment

Short Answer Key

1. Appreciation in real estate investment means the increase in the value of a property over time.
2. One advantage of flipping houses is the potential for quick profits after renovating and selling the property.
3. Real estate investors use loans from banks to purchase properties by borrowing money and using the property itself as collateral.
4. Examples of commercial real estate include shopping centers, office buildings, or warehouses.
5. Renting out properties generates income for real estate investors by collecting monthly rent from tenants.

