

Name _____

Jan Brueghel the Elder: The Painter of Nature's Beauty

Short Answer

1. Describe Jan Brueghel's artistic training and the influence of his family on his artistic journey.
2. What were some of the preferred subjects and themes in Jan Brueghel's paintings, and how did he infuse symbolism into his still-life compositions?
3. Discuss the significant collaboration between Jan Brueghel the Elder and Peter Paul Rubens and the impact it had on their respective works.
4. Explain why Jan Brueghel the Elder is often referred to as "Flower Brueghel," and what makes his floral and still-life paintings stand out.
5. Reflect on the enduring legacy of Jan Brueghel's art and its influence on subsequent generations of artists.

