

Name _____

Jean Arp: The Playful Surrealist

Short Answer

1. Explain the concept of "automatic" art and its significance in Jean Arp's work.
2. Describe the biomorphic shapes commonly found in Jean Arp's collages and sculptures.
3. How does "Sculpture to Be Lost in the Forest" reflect Jean Arp's Surrealist approach? What does it encourage viewers to imagine?
4. Why is Jean Arp's work considered playful, and what impact has it had on the art world?
5. How did Jean Arp contribute to Surrealism, and how did his approach differ from other Surrealist artists?

