

Name _____

What Does a Jellyfish Eat?

Short Answer Key

1. Being a carnivore means the jellyfish eats other animals.
2. Jellyfish use their tentacles' stinging cells to catch and paralyze prey.
3. They mostly eat small creatures because they drift and cannot chase prey.
4. Jellyfish help control plankton populations and provide food for other animals.
5. They drift with currents and catch food that floats nearby.

