

Name _____

Jim's Truth

Short Answer Key

1. Twain shows Jim's kindness by having him protect Huck, care for him, and show deep love for his family.
2. Huck apologizes because he realizes that Jim's feelings matter and that he hurt him.
3. Jim proves he is intelligent, kind, and loving, which goes against the false ideas that enslaved people were not fully human.
4. Huck's decision is important because it shows he values friendship over society's unfair rules.
5. Jim uses his intelligence to protect Huck, escape danger, and make good decisions throughout their journey.

