

Name _____

What's a Frog's Job? - Multiple Choice Questions

1. What role do frogs primarily play as predators?

- A) They eat birds and mammals.
- B) They eat plants and vegetables.
- C) They hunt large animals in the forest.
- D) They eat various insects, helping control insect populations.

2. Why are frogs considered important to the food chain?

- A) They are both predators and prey, supporting other animals in the ecosystem.
- B) They only eat plants.
- C) They are rare animals.
- D) They live in water and land.

3. What is a unique way frogs can signal environmental health?

- A) By changing colors often.
- B) Through loud croaking sounds.
- C) By getting sick or disappearing, indicating pollution.
- D) By building nests.

4. Why is biodiversity important, as explained in the passage?

- A) It means having only one type of plant in an area.
- B) It helps ecosystems stay balanced and resilient.
- C) It helps frogs become more colorful.
- D) It means ecosystems only need frogs to survive.

5. Where are frogs not typically found?

- A) Deserts
- B) Tropical rainforests
- C) Antarctica
- D) Mountains

