

Name _____

Jonas's Journey

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does Jonas see at the top of the hill?
 - a) A group of Elders waiting for him
 - b) A school full of children
 - c) A bridge leading back to his community
 - d) A house glowing with warm light

2. What is unusual about the book's ending?
 - a) It clearly states that Jonas finds safety
 - b) It explains that Jonas returns to his community
 - c) It leaves Jonas's fate open to interpretation
 - d) It reveals that Jonas was dreaming all along

3. What might the glowing house symbolize?
 - a) A warning to turn back
 - b) A sign of warmth, love, and a new beginning
 - c) A trick set by the community to capture Jonas
 - d) A place where Jonas will be punished

4. Why do some readers believe Jonas does not survive?
 - a) Because the Giver told him he would fail
 - b) Because Jonas and Gabriel are too weak to continue
 - c) Because Jonas sees a memory rather than reality
 - d) Because Jonas decides to return to his home

5. How does the novel's ending encourage different interpretations?
 - a) It allows the reader to decide whether Jonas lives or dies
 - b) It gives multiple choices for how Jonas's journey ends
 - c) It explains exactly what happens next
 - d) It forces the reader to agree with one clear outcome

