Jonas's Journey

Short Answer Key

1. Jonas leaves because he learns the truth about his community and wants to save Gabriel from being "released."
2. He sees a glowing house with a family celebrating around a Christmas tree.
3. Some think he survives because the house represents warmth and love, while others believe he is seeing a memory before dying.
4. The author never confirms what happens next, leaving readers to decide for themselves.
5. Jonas feels both hope and exhaustion, uncertain of what will happen next.
