

Name _____

Nature's Super-Jumpers - Short Answer Questions Answer Key

1. Webbed feet help frogs swim quickly and glide smoothly through water.
2. The tympanum is a flat disc behind each eye that helps frogs hear sounds from their environment.
3. Frogs have large, bulging eyes that allow them to see well in low light and detect small movements.
4. Brightly colored skin in some species warns predators of their toxicity.
5. Frogs drink water by absorbing it through their skin.

