

Name _____

Justice Served

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does the narrator first start behaving cruelly?
 - a) He is jealous of Pluto.
 - b) He drinks too much and loses control.
 - c) He dislikes all animals.
 - d) He is afraid of black cats.

2. What happens after the narrator harms Pluto?
 - a) He gets rid of all his pets.
 - b) He immediately apologizes and changes his behavior.
 - c) His house burns down, and a strange shadow appears.
 - d) The police come and arrest him.

3. Why does the narrator fear the second cat?
 - a) It reminds him of Pluto and his past crime.
 - b) It makes loud noises at night.
 - c) It attacks him when he sleeps.
 - d) It refuses to eat any food.

4. What event leads to the narrator's punishment?
 - a) The second cat makes a strange noise, revealing his secret.
 - b) A neighbor sees him commit a crime.
 - c) The police search his house and find the hidden crime.
 - d) He confesses everything to a friend.

5. What is the main lesson about crime and punishment in The Black Cat?
 - a) Bad actions can be hidden forever.
 - b) Animals always find a way to get revenge.
 - c) People should not own black cats.
 - d) Guilt and fear will eventually lead to justice.

