

Name _____

Justice Served

Short Answer Key

1. The narrator's guilt makes him paranoid, causing him to see the second cat as a sign of punishment.
2. The second cat reminds the narrator of his crime and leads to his downfall.
3. He accidentally traps the second cat in the wall, which makes noise and alerts the police.
4. The fire may symbolize punishment and guilt, as it happens after he harms Pluto.
5. He wants to convince himself and others that he is in control, even though his actions show otherwise.

